

"Together We Can"

The 2023 IBCA World Women's Individual Chess Championship for the Blind and Visually Impaired

Valencia, Spain

July 03-12, 2023

INVITATION

The International Braille Chess Association (IBCA) and the Spanish Federation of Sports for the Blind (FEDC, the Organizer) cordially invite you to the IBCA World Women's Individual Chess Championship for the Blind and Visually Impaired 2023.

1. Dates, location, and venue.

The 2023 IBCA World Women's Individual Chess Championship for the Blind and Visually Impaired will be held in Valencia, Spain from July 03 (Arrival Day) through July 12 (Departure Day). The tournament will take place in the Hotel ILUNION Valencia 4 (four stars), full address: Carrer de la Vall d'Aiora, 1, 46015 València, Valencia (Valencia), Spain.

2. Eligibility to participate; delegations.

The 2023 IBCA World Women's Individual Chess Championship is open to national Braille chess federations from all member countries that do not have unresolved financial obligations to the IBCA. Any federation that is in arrears with respect to their dues or fees payable to the IBCA shall settle this debt no later than January 31, 2023 in order to be eligible to participate.

Every eligible federation can register any number of players (one, two, or more). When registering a delegation, every team shall designate a team captain. A captain may be one of the players or another member of this team's delegation. The national Braille chess federations assume full responsibility for the conduct of their players. Each federation may designate a Head of Delegation; it may either appoint a person exclusively to this office, or entrust the team captain, or one of the players, with this function.

3. Event program.

- Arrival on July 03, 2023 – Departure on July 12, 2023.
- Travel details: Valencia (Manises) Airport (IATA: VLC).
- Pick-up from and drop-off at the international airport will be provided to all the participants who confirm the travel plans no later than June 02, 2023.
- The rest day with a free excursion is scheduled.

4. Technical information and schedule.

The tournament will be held under the official IBCA and FIDE rules as a seven-round, Swiss system event, with one round playable per game day. Please see the Tournament Regulations for the 2023 IBCA World Women’s Individual Chess Championship for the Blind and Visually Impaired that form an integral part of this Invitation.

5. Chess equipment.

All games in the tournament will be played only on Braille chess sets.

As a condition of its participation, every national delegation shall bring at least two (2) Braille chess sets and one (1) Braille clock per every two participating players, plus sufficient writing (recording) equipment.

The 2023 IBCA World Women's Individual Chess Championship for the Blind and Visually Impaired

Valencia, Spain

July 03-12, 2023

TECHNICAL REGULATIONS

14. Governing regulations.

The 2023 IBCA World Women's Individual Championship for the Blind and Visually Impaired shall be played according to the FIDE Laws of Chess, the FIDE General Regulations for Competitions, the applicable IBCA Rules, and present Technical Regulations. At any time, any circumstance or unforeseen situation not covered by the above regulations shall be referred to the IBCA President for a final decision.

15. Participation.

The IBCA World Women's Individual chess Championship for the Blind and Visually Impaired is open to all players representing the National Braille Chess Federations which are members of the IBCA, regardless of their title or rating. There is no limit to the number of participants per federation.

Only a duly authorized representative of the National Braille Chess Federation that is the IBCA member in good standing (no outstanding debts) can register a delegation to participate in this tournament. All players, officials, and accompanying persons from the same member country shall be registered as a single delegation by the specified deadline. The countries that are in arrears are required to pay their debt to the IBCA in full by the deadline in order to proceed with the registration. The IBCA and the Organizers will not accept any registrations that attempt to circumvent National Braille Chess Federations.

16. Format & system.

The tournament shall be played as a seven (7) round Swiss system event with one round playable per game day.

Pairings will be handled by FIDE certified software under the responsibility of the Pairings Officer and the Chief Arbiter. The starting list and all pairings will use the FIDE Standard Rating List valid at the tournament start date. The tournament will be rated with FIDE.

17. Time control; default time.

The following time control shall be used for all games – (90'/end + 30" incr. starting from Move 1), i.e., 90 minutes for each player plus 30 seconds Fischer increment per move starting from the first move.

“Together We Can ”

If a player arrives at the chessboard with a delay of more than thirty (30) minutes from the actual start of the round, her game will be declared lost by a forfeit.

18. Tie-breaks.

The IBCA tournaments fall under the rubric “Individual Swiss Tournaments where not all the ratings are consistent”, so the recommendations of Annex 3, Art. 13.16.1 of the FIDE General Regulations for Competitions are applied.

The final ranking order of the players is determined by the number of points scored. If at the end of the tournament, two or more players are tied, the tie shall be broken as follows:

- Buchholz Cut 1
- Buchholz
- Sonneborn-Berger
- Cumulative system - Sum of Progressive Scores
- Direct encounter
- The greater number of wins including forfeits
- The greater number of wins with Black pieces

20. Player conduct.

All participants are bound by the Laws of Chess and shall behave at all times during the tournament in accordance with the IBCA and FIDE statutes and the highest principles of sportsmanship.

The players are expected to be present at all official events approved by the IBCA and the Organizer, including the Opening and the Closing ceremonies.

The players are expected to attend the Technical Meeting. If necessary, the Chief Arbiter may call other Technical Meetings.

The players are expected to co-operate with the media and be available for short interviews immediately after each game.

“Together We Can”

The players shall comply with the requirements of FIDE Regulations (FIDE Handbook, §C.01, Article 8.1) to maintain their dignified appearance at all times during the event.

21. Fair play; electronic equipment.

Fair Play measures will be in place as per the FIDE Anti-Cheating Guidelines. With the sole exception of the move recording equipment, during a game players and captains are forbidden to have any electronic device not specifically approved by the arbiter in the playing venue. Such devices may be stored in a player's bag, provided the device is completely switched off. This bag must be placed as agreed with the arbiter and the player is forbidden to use this bag without the arbiter's permission. Accompanying persons or spectators are forbidden to use electronic devices at the playing venue except for photography when explicitly approved by the arbiter.

22. Appeals Committee.

The IBCA and the Organizer will nominate the Chairman and two (2) other members of the Appeals Committee, as well as two (2) reserve members, all from different National Braille Chess Federations. All names shall be announced no later than at the start of the Technical Meeting before Round 1.

None of the three (3) members of the Appeals Committee shall sit in judgment in a dispute involving a player from his National Braille Chess Federations. A reserve member takes his place in such a case.

A protest can be lodged only by a player or a head of delegation. All protests shall be submitted to the Appeals Committee in writing not more than one (1) hour after the completion of relevant game, or an alleged occurrence of an infringement complained against.

Each protest must be accompanied by a deposit fee of one hundred (100) Euros. If the protest is accepted, the fee shall be returned. If the protest is rejected, the fee shall be forfeited to the IBCA.

The Appeals Committee may decide on the following matters:

- a) an appeal against a decision by an arbiter,
- b) a protest against a player's or a captain's behavior,
- c) all other matters which the Committee considers relevant.

The written decision of the Appeals Committee arising from any dispute is final.

23. Prizes.

The player who wins the championship will be declared the 2023 IBCA World Women's Individual Champion. The players who win the first, second and third places will be awarded trophies.
